

PSRA

Park Street and District Residents Association

The Committee has identified behaviours and values to support and deliver the Aims identified in its Constitution.

Our Values

- Value diversity and equality
- Be mindful of others' opinions, in person and in all forms of communications
- Contribute proactively to the Committee
- Doing what you say you will when you said you would

Our Behaviours

- Represent the Association favourably, telling people what the Association achieves, and support recruitment and engagement in the local community
- Encourage members and residents to be proactive and involved
- Treat others as you would wish to be treated
- Respond to queries and tasks in a timely fashion (between 10 days and at least before next meeting)

Officers will:

- Lead by example and as a positive role model, gaining trust and respect
- Create an environment where members are comfortable, participate and proactive
- Recognise problems and respond quickly to them
- Set and drive standards aligned to our Constitution goals
- Challenge disharmony, and provide constructive, honest, and relevant feedback in a supportive way

Members will:

- Support and act upon decisions made by quorum and Officers proactively
- Be proactive, favourable, and involved with the tasks of the committee
- Drive and support standards aligned to the Constitution goals
- Ensure escalation of any issues/suggestions directly to the Chair or another Officer as soon as possible- prior to the wider committee – for direction
- Will present a united front and not air grievances with other members or officers in a public forum such as Twitter or Facebook, or sharing private emails
- Take turns on projects/rota/sub-committee
