

Park Street and Frogmore Society
Presents

Tracks and signs of mammals: Have I got poos for you?

by Graham White

This talk is about the working life of an ecologist through the medium of poo, explaining how knowledge of tracks and signs of mammals and other species fits into the day to day work. Graham recently retired after 40 years working in conservation with the RSPB and the Wildlife Trusts.

8.15pm Tuesday 16th August 2022

Park Street Village Hall

Admission

£1.00 per head Members £2.00 per head Non-members

Contact: Jacqui Banfield-Taylor. 07792 588892